SUBJECT INDEX TO VOLUME 10

Anabolic steroid, reproductive function in females treated neonatally with, 59

Chlamydial genital infection and laparoscopic picture in infertile women, correlation between, 205
Chronic sulpiride-induced hyperprolactinemia, effects of on gonadotropin responses to gonadotropin-releasing hormone, 241
Congenital longitudinal vaginal septa, infertility associated with, 141

Fructose and its relationship with other spermatogenic parameters in large heterogeneous population of males, 301

Herpes simplex virus, office testing for by direct immunofluorescence and tissue culture techniques, 249
Human in vitro fertilization and embyro transfer, shorter quality control test for media and supplies used in, 257
Human sperm banking, possible use of dimethylsulfoxide in, 333

Impending or evident gonadotropin surges in stimulated cycles, recognition of, 121
Infertile seminiferous tubular walls, scanning electron microscopic observation on three dimensional structure of fibrous components in, 155
Intrafallopian transfer, ova harvest with fertilization following, 51
In vitro fertilization, changes in cervical mucus following ovarian stimulation for, 267

Leiomyomata uteri, validity of gynecologic exam and pelvic ultrasound in diagnosis of, 15
Luteal phase deficiency as cause of infertility in private practice, importance of, 111

Male industrial workers, infertility among, 235
Micioscopic tuboplsties in presence of other infertility factors, pregnancy rates after, 279
Midluteal progesterone/estradiol ratio as indicator of pregnancy potential in women, 195
Mullerian duct abnormalities and associated factors in infertility, 41
Mycoplasma and Spermatogoal antigens, study on possible cross-reaction between, 215

Oligospermic patients, treatment of ejaculatory and spermatogenic dysfunctions in via collection of ejaculates at intercourse using seminal fluid collection device, 167
Ovarian hyperstimulation and pulmonary embolism, 185

Pathological seminal fluid and IgA, 173
Pelvic adhesions following microsurgical wedge resection compared to laparoscopic electrocoagulation of rabbit ovaries, 33
Persistent ectopic gestation after conservative surgery, 103
Progesterone and oestradiol binding in cytosol of endometria from fertile and subfertile women, 1
Prostatovesicular fluid isolates, antibiotic susceptibility of, 95

Recurrent aborters, structural chromosome abnormalities, polymorphisms, and aneuploidy in, 129
Recurrent reproductive failure, relationships to lupus anticoagulant and antinuclear antibodies: problems with methodology and treatment, 23

Seminal fluid zinc: not a prognostic factor for male fertility, 289
Split ejaculates, buffering capacity of first and second fractions of, 309

Tubal reanastomosis after sterilization, prognostic factors of, 225

Urokinase as infertility parameter, 87
Uterine horn model of adhesions in rabbit, development of, 71

Zona-free hamster test, male factors causing inhibition of, 321
